Waste Water
Treatment Plant
Blower Repair

A blower failed again at the Waste Water Treatment Plant (WWTP). Administrator Hemmer arranged for HMG Engineers, Inc. to meet with the blower manufacturer and the Public Works Department; a report will be provided regarding their findings. Mr. Hemmer approved the blower repair to make certain the WWTP has a second blower. The amount is $4,498.57 with an estimated $800 cost for alignment for a total of about $5,298.57. Mr. Hemmer is not authorizing a new blower purchase at this time, even though the budget allows for it; it needs to be determined why the blowers continue to fail.

A motion was made by Trustee Pettibone and seconded by Trustee Zurliene to authorize $5,298.57 ($4,498.57 for repair and an estimated $800 for alignment) for the repair to a blower at the Waste Water Treatment Plant.
